Marksbury.

Marksbury can boast of one of the oldest ladies, Mrs. Minerva Bedow; although a nonagenarian, she walked almost a mile to a neighbors one day last week, spent the day and walked home in the afternoon. She surely has discovered the fountain of youth, that the old Spanish Cavalier sought centuries ago.

Mr. A. J. Rice Jr., of Hedgeville, visited Mr. John Simpson's family Sunday. Rev. Overstreet, a Methodist preacher from Jessamine, will deliver a sermon at the Orchard School house Sunday afternoon April 30 at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. W. M. Kuykenhall has returned from a pleasant visit to her parents Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Brookshire at Bowling Green. Miss Hall-Rice has been quite sick for the past week with something resembling rosolia. Miss Katie Adair accompanied by Little Miss Cora Wesley, of Lancaster, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Aldridge. Rev. W. M. Kuykenhall left Wednesday to hold a protracted meeting at Rockbridge church in Washington County. Mrs. A. J. Rice has a turkey egg that weighs one half of a pound, measures 8 inches in circumference and 5 inches in length.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burdett started to pay a visit to their father, Mr. T. D. Chesnut, in Boyle. When they arrived at the river it has risen to such a height that it was dangerous to cross, so Mrs. Burdett and the daughters were compelled to return.

Sweeney.

S. Morgan bought a car load of hogs at 3c.

Call at S. Morgan's and see the beautiful line of Spring Goods.

S. Morgan has a lot of shingles at R. A. Stone's of Lancaster, for sale at 50c at Sweeney, for sale at 60c per hundred.

A few friends gathered in at Sweeney, Monday evening, and enjoyed excellent music of the guitar, harp and piano, rendered by your correspondent and Miss Grace Morgan, in which Mr. J. L. Kennedy, of Crab Orchard, took a prominent part.

J. D. Bridge, editor and proprietor of the Democrat, Lancaster, N. H. says: I would not be without One Minute Cough Cure for my boy when troubled with a cough or cold. It is the best remedy for croup I ever used.
